Welcome:

It is with a great deal of pride and enthusiasm that I welcome you into our Grizzly Family. We believe your time here will be the best years of your life – full of challenge and achievement. The University of Montana offers you a most unique experience. Count on being exposed to excellence in both the academic and athletic worlds!

We ask only that you give your best at all times, and perform both on and off the field with class knowing that at all times you are representing The University of Montana. It will be the privilege of the entire Grizzly nation to watch your growth and development these years ahead. So think big, do your best and never forget who you are and what you represent.

This 2010-11 school year is destined to be special. Enjoy your involvement and take advantage of what this most outstanding University has to offer. As you continue through your college career, keep setting the bar a little higher so when you have run your race you can say “I did all I could.”

Best wishes on a prosperous and successful career!
