

Washington-Grizzly Stadium Game-Day Policies

Umbrellas can be brought into the stadium but may not be open in spectator areas.

Strollers are not permitted within the stadium.

Infants in arms are admitted without a ticket. Toddlers and older will only be admitted with a ticket.

All bags are subject to inspection upon entry by security personnel.

Outside food and drink are generally not permitted. Cans and glass bottles are prohibited because of their potential to become projectiles. Thermoses on cold-weather dates will be allowed but will be given a smell check by security personnel.

Blankets for cold-weather games are allowed, but will be inspected upon entry to the stadium.
